Depression: What Are We Doing for Our Residents? Part 2 – Intervention

Conference Call #4 | Wednesday, Oct. 4, 2006 | 2:00 – 3:00 pm

Featuring
N. Kortner Nygard, Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist

As president and owner of GeroPsych, Inc., Kortner Nygard, Ph.D. provides diagnostic evaluation, referral and psychotherapy to residents of nursing homes and assisted living facilities.

Kortner, a clinical psychologist, is also vice president of New Senior Concepts, an innovative assisted living facility in Tennessee; and is chairman of the Tennessee Eden Alternative Coalition, which assists long-term care facilities in converting to a more home-like environment. He was appointed as an Eden Mentor in 2004 and certified as an Eden Alternative Trainer in 2006.

As a Research Assistant Professor of Public Policy at Vanderbilt University, Kortner reviewed diagnostic instruments used in research settings for validity and appropriate use. While executive vice-president at Rebound, Inc., he managed the continuing education of health-care professionals, as well as a clinical outcomes research program.
